A WHITNEY MUSEUM PUBLICATION

WINSLOW HOMER

By LLOYD GOODRICH

Research Curator, Whitney Museum of American Art

This definitive book is a complete account of Winslow Homer's life and work. Based on long and thorough research, it contains much material never before published, including many of the artist's personal letters, and a memoir by his close friend, John W. Beatty. Mr. Goodrich has traced and recorded all his known pictures and has uncovered fresh contemporary source material. Homer's strongly individual character, his early struggles, his strange solitary life of later years are revealed frankly and with insight and humor. The evolution of his art is traced with keen critical understanding. The book is at once a penetrating character study and an absorbing story of the growth of one of America's greatest artists.

WINSLOW HOMER is a handsome quarto volume containing 241 pages of text and 95 illustrations. Price $7.50.
